CEREMONIAL PRESENTATION:

Harry Delgado of the New Jersey Police Chief's Association was joined by Council President Cassidy, the Police Commissioner and the Police Chief, to speak about the Police Accreditation.

Mr. Delgado shared the process involved to achieve accreditation. He stated that the Wood-Ridge Police Department has proved they are not only the best police department in the state but also in the nation. There are over 470 law enforcement agencies that can qualify, and Wood-Ridge is one of only 170 that have done so. It is a long and rigorous process and Wood-Ridge has not only completed it, but did so in an exceptional manner. There are 105 standards that must be met in order to complete the process, which takes between 18-24 months. In the case of the Wood-Ridge Police Department, the Association did not find any standard which was not met and therefore, remarkably achieved this accreditation. Mr. Delgado presented the Award with his many congratulations on behalf of the Chief's Association.

Councilman Altamura stated how honored he was to be a part of the process. Councilman Altamura asked everyone to join him in a round of applause for all the officers.
