FIRST HEARING OF CITIZENS:

Mayor Sarlo declared the Hearing of Citizens to be open.

Rich Martinelli of 216 Tenth Street asked if there was a committee that went over the payment of bills before they were paid. Administrator Eilert explained there are 3 councilmembers that review each one every month and each purchase order is signed by 2 members before payment can be made. Mayor Sarlo added that in addition to 2 council members signing each purchase order, the administrator then signs the purchase orders. Mayor Sarlo also stated that each check then has his, the borough clerk and CFO's signature, so there are 5 signatures required for every payment made.

With no other citizens wishing to be heard, the hearing of citizens was declared closed.
