CEREMONIAL PRESENTATION: Police Accreditation

Mayor Sarlo asked Chief Korin, Lieutenant Drotos, Sergeant Wolfsohn and Councilman Altamura to join him at the dais.

Harry Delgado, Program Manager of the New Jersey State Chief's Association spoke briefly before his presentation. He stated that only 42% of police departments have been able to achieve accreditation and, to the honor of Wood-Ridge, they have received it for a second time. This was an extremely difficult task and only 1% of police departments have attained this accomplishment. He commented on the entire police department as he presented the Certificate to Chief Korin.

Chief Korin thanked Mr. Delgado for his kind words and thanked the council and everyone involved in helping to achieve this goal.

Councilman Altamura explained how the accreditation works and that he attended and testified on behalf of the department. He congratulated the Chief and the entire department on a job well done.

Mayor Sarlo stated that many departments do not follow through on the accreditation process because it is such a grueling and difficult one. We are proud to work together with our police department and stated this was one of the reason we are so successful. Mayor Sarlo thanked Chief Korin and everyone for helping attain this great accomplishment.

Mayor Sarlo took a moment to acknowledge all the members of the Wood-Ridge Police Department and Fire Department who were present this evening. He noted the presence of Chief Schulz and Chief Cribben of the Fire Department, and members of the Public Works Department who cross over to the Fire Department as well.

Mayor Sarlo declares the Hearing of Citizens to be open.

Rich Martinelli of 216 Tenth Street asked what percentage of the Athletic Complex the town was responsible for. Administrator Eilert explained it was not a percentage as opposed to dollar amounts. But if he wanted a percentage he would say approximately 30%. Mr. Martinelli asked why there were so many tax return resolutions. Administrator Eilert explained these are not discounts but reimbursement to people who bought homes from Pulte where the attorney miscalculated the amount due on the HUD statement for the multiple buyers' closings. Therefore, the borough was paid for 13 months of taxes instead of 12 and were reimbursed the extra payment.
