Also, being purchased was 3 new police vehicles, a DPW Dump Truck with snow plow and salt spreader and new computer equipment for the borough. Mr. Martinelli asked what was kept in the garages across from borough hall. Administrator Eilert stated it is used for storage for fire and police department. Mr. Martinelli asked what happens to the liquor license since Cousin Vinny's has closed. Borough Attorney Barbire explained it becomes inactive for a one-year period until it is bought and transferred.

Faith Ballantine-Armonaitis of TapInTo News asked about the out of service ambulance in the borough parking lot. Administrator Eilert explained that was our older ambulance that we keep in case anything happens with the new one and according to OSHA regulations, we must put a sign in the window stating "out of service" if it is not in use.

Red Castner of 230 Innes Lane asked about the fire lane of Sussex and Innes Roads and stated there were very large pot holes. Administrator Eilert explained the borough needed to wait until the retaining wall to be finished and we are going out to bid for repaving of Burma Road.
