FIRST HEARING OF CITIZENS:

Mayor Sarlo declared the Hearing of Citizens to be open.

Mike Dodds of 144 Helm Avenue asked for an update on the sewer back-up that he experienced at his home. Administrator Eilert explained that a clog was found in the line near where it enters the pump station which is caused by people flushing non-biodegradable material and personal care and hygiene products as well as disposing of cooking oils and grease into kitchen sinks. He encouraged all residents in low elevation areas to install check valves on their sanitary sewer drain line. The town will be working with Mr. Dodds to compensate him for his losses.

Amy Christiana of 147 Helm Avenue asked questions regarding the pump station functions and routing. Administrator Eilert explained how pump stations operate and the route of the pump station lines from the Arnot Station.

Maureen Herman of 314 Innes Road thanked the Mayor and Council for the WRAC Soccer program. Ms. Herman stated that there is danger in crossing on Valley Boulevard and Hackensack Avenue and asked if flashing lights would be considered. Ms. Herman asked about public access TV for local towns. Mayor Sarlo and Administrator Eilert both reflected on how distracted driving as well as distracted walking are a major problem that signs and flashing lights won't cure. Administrator Eilert also stated that pedestrians should cross at traffic lights because they have safety features for pedestrians. Mayor Sarlo stated that streaming services are the new technology that he believes will make public access TV obsolete.

With no other citizens wishing to be heard, the first hearing of citizens was closed.
