ADVERTISED PUBLIC HEARING:

Public Hearing on the 2025 Municipal Budget

Administrator Eilert stated that thanks to the hard work of the finance committee, we are able to have a budget for adoption which is well below all the state mandated CAPS for appropriations and tax levy. To show how efficiently our town runs, our tax levy CAP Bank, which is the 3-year accumulation of unraised funds that you could have raised if you had to by taxation, is at 3.9 million dollars. Theoretically, this means we could have a tax levy that is 3.9 million dollars higher and still be considered under the state CAP and that is despite significant increases in our liability insurance, workers compensation and health insurance costs. This is a very good budget we will be voting on this evening.

Mayor Sarlo called for a Hearing of Citizens on Public Hearing on the 2025 Municipal Budget.
