Hearing of Citizens:

Esta Ann Ammerman was in attendance to rescind her appeal to have her daughters reinstated to the Competitive Cheering Team. She was accompanied by her husband Paul Ammerman and her brother Mauro.

Paul Ammerman was in attendance to discuss South Bergen Travel. He said that the numbers are currently very low. He would let us know if there would be any teams entered in the South Bergen Program this year. Dennis reminded Paul that any coach not certified, should not be allowed to coach. Jacki will hold one final certification for Basketball on Monday November 23rd. Rolando will send a list of all of the Basketball Coaches by Thursday November 19th and Jacki will check and see who needs what level of certification.

Old/Business Committee Reports:

- a. Dennis Brubaker: Dennis informed the Commission that the Borough Attorney has requested that all emails sent in a derogatory manner in conjunction with Borough sponsored programs must stop. He discussed the overabundance of emails that are sent via broadcast type messages. Joe suggested emails should have to go through the board. Emil suggests including a disclaimer on emails, Dennis suggested a no tolerance policy be considered. All liaisons were advised to discuss this very important matter with their respective groups.
- b. Jerry Lanzerotti: Not in attendance.
- c. Joe Zielinski: Football is over. Two teams (Juniors and Seniors) made it to the first round of the playoffs. Awards ceremony will be January 9th beginning at 3 p.m. at WRHS.
- d. Mike McGahn: Not in attendance.
- e. John Gingerelli: Nothing to report.
- f. Emil Bevacqua: Meeting will be held to discuss problems with soccer. Division coordinators were given the go ahead to make up rainouts. Complaints from parents were that Tony Seiga should have done this. Most teams did a great job getting all of their games in. Contacted U.S. Sports (Celine Martin) Winter Camps are held in Scarsdale New York. Full camps are held in April. Updated contract has not yet been received. We will be offering Multi-sports for K and above.

- g. Toniann Azzolini: Ragamuffin parade was held and all Goodie Bags were distributed in side the Doyle School Gym. Vicki Auslander and Valerie Coulter once again did an excellent job. Great turnout as well.
- h. Ezio Altamura: Not in attendance.
- i. Recreation Report (Jacki Goldklang): Received a call from Bryon Parisi in reference to attending a Football Camp (sleep away). The camp is simply a facility that Wood Ridge Jr. Football would use. Our own coaches would still instruct our boys and girls. Recreation would like Bryon to put together more information and report at a future meeting. Ladies in charge of the Ragamuffin Parade have requested next year to possibly have a visa card or some other means by which to lay out the money that they spend so that they do not have to wait for reimbursement. Reported registration totals for all sports Winter and Spring Sports (Basketball online 104 total 150, Wrestling online 17 total 32, Indoor Soccer online 28 total 50, South Bergen Travel Basketball online 8 total 10, Girls Softball online 17 total 23, Track and Field online 0 total 3, Babe Ruth online 7, total 10).
