Unfinished Business/Committee Reports:

- a. Dennis Brubaker: Next Coaches Certification will be Monday March 11th. Jacki will let the members of the Recreation Commission know if any of them have to be there for background checks. Attended a meeting for the Memorial Day Parade. Jacki will order the Porto John.
- b. Jerry Lanzerotti: Track and Field held a meeting on February 12th. Twelve parents were in attendance. The 2013 Board is the same as the 2012 Board. Indoor Soccer is going well.
- c. John Gingerelli: January Football meeting went well and was only 15 minutes long. Girl's Softball held their draft on February 11th. Little League will hold their draft next week. Babe Ruth registration going well. Little League Opening Day is scheduled for April 6th.

- d. Toni Ann Azzolini:
Nothing to report.
- e. Bryon Parisi: Wrestling is going well. They have can shakes coming up.
- f. Barbara Fischkelta: Recreation Basketball is going well. Rock sent an email to all of the parents concerning unsupervised children hanging out during practices and games.
- g. Tony Sartori: Inquired about the U.S. Sports Camps. Jacki mentioned that everything was going well.
- h. Ezio Altamura: Reported that both Moonachie and Little Ferry have been invited to participate in the Wood Ridge Memorial Day Parade. Jason Cata, WRHS Athletic Director is currently interviewing for the open positions for Soccer Coach for the fall 2013. Ezio and Jonathan Braid will help. Ed Marino questioned the need for lightening polls and defibrillators at all recreation fields. Training would be necessary ($25) for the defibrillators. Barbara will look into it and report back at the next meeting.
- i. Recreation Report (Jacki Goldklang): The score board at the Doyle School was repaired with no cost to the borough thanks to efforts of Bill Hammer. Jacki suggested a Twitter account for Recreation that could send out notifications when necessary. Barbara suggested a Facebook instead. We will talk about this further at the next recreation meeting. A Hasbrouck Heights parent questioned whether Wood Ridge had any Special Needs Programs in place and would we be interested in starting any. Jacki contact the YMCA.
