Unfinished Business/Committee Reports:

- a. Dennis Brubaker: 2017 Coaches Certification dates are 3/6, 7/10, 7/31, 11/13. Some discussion on Spring Basketball and the problems that were experienced during the 2016 season. First year was great, open gym type program. Afterwards program changed, teams were picked, referee fees were paid. Problems and complaints were experienced.
- b. Jerry Lanzerotti: NIA
- c. John Gingerelli: NTR
- d. Bryon Parisi: NIA – Football & Cheering will be accepting letters for board positions this month.
- e. Barbara Fischkelta: Basketball had issue with a coach concerning yelling and the use of foul language. Suggested that the coach be brought before the basketball board. Barbara will contact Dan to remind him that Basketball should be holding monthly meetings.
- f. Loriann Iacovino: MDHH ended, all went well.
- g. Pat Ambrosio: Girls Softball had a meeting and discussed uniforms, fundraising and the availability of facilities. They would like to begin Sunday indoor workouts on January 22nd.
- h. Ezio Altamura: There is a turf class action lawsuit. Wood Ridge has the turf fields groomed twice yearly and is not involved at this time. U14 Girls Soccer will be recognized by the Mayor & Council. Dom Azzolini is now the Council President. Track & Field is holding registration.
- i. Recreation Report (Jacki Goldklang): Bob Valenti requested that the Recreation Commission revisit its decision to allow Adult Basketball on Thursday nights. *Barbara Fischkelta made a motion to approve use of the WRHS Gym to the Adult Basketball program on Thursday nights if available (not to conflict with WRHS or W-R Recreation Sports or activities.
