Jack Nagel of 479 Wood-Ridge Avenue spoke on behalf of the Wood-Ridge Memorial Foundation. Honorees of foundation are usually announced at the foundation's annual dinner dance. However, he found it appropriate to announce to mayor and council that this year's honoree would be Annette Altamura.

Bonnie Taylor of 164 Wood-Ridge Street asked how much money the borough made from the sale of the Westmont Wines Liquor License. Mayor Sarlo explained the borough is not involved in the sale of any liquor licenses. Administrator Eilert explained the process of the sale of said license. Ms. Taylor asked if there was an ordinance regarding the time for lights on the high school field. Mayor Sarlo explained there was no ordinance but there was policy set by the governing body. However, there are 4 wood-ridge high school football games and 4 junior football games not including playoffs. The games have been running longer because the league has changed the running time of the official clock as well as not being able to start before 5:30. These are out of the control of the governing body but have, along with the recreation commission, asked the league to consider changing the rules as it is concerning to all residents.
